

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

CHIEF OF POLICE

MARBLEHEAD POLICE DEPARTMENT
MARBLEHEAD, MASSACHUSETTS
APPLICATION DEADLINE: TUESDAY, APRIL 20 AT 4P.M.

MARBLEHEAD HISTORY

Located 18 miles north of Boston, Marblehead was first home to the Naumkeag Tribe, a group of Native Americans belonging to the Algonquin Nation. It was later settled by British colonists and fishermen in 1629 and then split off from Salem and incorporated in 1649. The town is considered to be the birthplace of the U.S. Navy. It was home to General John Glover, who played a crucial role in the Revolutionary War by leading an amphibious regiment of “Marblehead Mariners” that was responsible for transporting General Washington’s troops at several key moments in the war and contributed to several decisive victories, including the surrender by the British at the Battle of Saratoga. Following the American Revolution, Marblehead had a strong fishing industry, with a local fleet of 98 vessels in 1837. This industry declined over time as other ports around the region grew, but many Marbleheaders make a living in the fishing and lobster industries today.

Situated along the Atlantic Ocean, Marblehead offers beautiful parks, public beaches, historic character, and a quaint atmosphere that makes it a great place to live. The City of Salem is located to the west of Marblehead, and the Town of Swampscott to the south. Marblehead exhibits slightly higher density than typical suburban towns.

MARBLEHEAD TODAY

A coastal community of 20,544 residents, today Marblehead's quaint narrow streets and historic 17th and 18th century buildings are as they have existed since its founding in 1629.

Marblehead is now largely a residential community. The closest commuter rail stations are approximately three miles away in the Town of Swampscott, and four miles away in the City of Salem, which also has a ferry connection to downtown Boston. In addition, Marblehead has bus service that connects to the MBTA, providing access in and out of Marblehead.

Town affairs are overseen by a five-member Board of Selectmen and the legislative body is an open Town Meeting. In addition, certain functions are overseen by other elected Boards or Commissions, which include Water and Sewer, Recreation and Parks, Library, Cemetery, Assessors, Health, Schools, and Municipal Light. Each member of the Board of Selectmen is elected for a one-year term, so all members run for office annually.

The Town Administrator is appointed by the Board of Selectmen and is responsible for the day-to-day management of the Town.

DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The Marblehead Police Department is committed to the protection of lives and property and enhancing the safety and peace of the community for which we serve. Our goal is to maintain the highest standard of professionalism and to preserve the individual rights and liberties of the public, while serving the needs of our citizens. We are dedicated to a cooperative effort with the community to identify and address concerns, reduce the fear of crime, participate in criminal justice and social service diversion programs and to enhance the quality of life of our residents.

ABOUT

Officially organized on April 15, 1853, the Marblehead Police Department is one of the oldest police departments in the United States.

The Marblehead Police Department has an annual operating budget of approximately $4.23 million. The department includes 32 sworn officers, including the chief, one captain, four lieutenants, four sergeants and 22 patrol officers. The department also oversees 911 dispatchers, school traffic supervisors, and the Animal Control Department, for a total of 60+ personnel.

In 2019 the Marblehead Police Department was awarded full accreditation by the Massachusetts Police Accreditation Commission, a voluntary process viewed as a high-water mark for municipal police in Massachusetts.

The Marblehead Police Department is a member of the North Shore Drug & Anti-Crime Task Force and works cooperatively on cases involving cross-jurisdictional drug trafficking and distribution as well as the investigation, apprehension and prosecution of those engaged in serious criminal activity within the member communities. MPD is also a member of the Northeastern Massachusetts Law Enforcement Council (NEMLEC) a mutual aid and specialty service network consisting of member police departments from more than 70 cities and towns in Essex County and Middlesex County as well as the county sheriffs in both counties and various state leaders.

CHIEF OF POLICE: QUALITIES & PRIORITIES

- ✓ COLLABORATIVE LEADERSHIP
- ✓ STRONG CHARACTER
- ✓ COMMUNICATION
- ✓ TRANSPARENCY

- ✓ MAINTAIN MPD REPUTATION
- ✓ COMMUNITY-BASED POLICING
- ✓ COMMITMENT TO FAIR, SAFE, IMPARTIAL POLICING

The Town of Marblehead is seeking a Chief of Police with strong character who can inspire trust and confidence. The individual must be committed to collaborative leadership and available to work cross-departmentally with town leadership to improve the quality of life for all residents. The selected applicant must be able to balance a respect for the long history and tradition of the Marblehead community with a willingness to bring a fresh perspective to the role.

The Marblehead Police Department places a strong emphasis on community-based policing and positive interactions between police officers and constituents. The Chief of Police should be invested in connecting the department with residents, business owners, and area civic and cultural organizations and maintain open communication around quality-of-life issues and public-safety concerns. In addition, the candidate must pursue establishing and continuing partnerships with area advocacy groups aimed towards mutual goals, as well as membership and participation in regional police organizations.

The Marblehead Police Department has been under steady leadership for more than a decade, during which time the department reached accreditation by adhering to a wide variety of standards related to police work, including jurisdiction and use of force, victim/ witness assistance, and property and evidence control. This standard of excellence should continue to be upheld and monitored under the leadership of a new Chief of Police.

The selected applicant must take an active role in community conversations around diversity, and be ready to listen openly and with empathy to community member experiences. As the conversation evolves the new Chief of Police will need to stay open to reflecting on department policies and procedures and making responsive updates as needed. The new Chief of Police is expected to continue to grow and foster the Town's strong relationships with community organizations such as the Anti-Defamation League, Task Force Against Discrimination, Racial Justice Team, and Team Harmony, among other groups.

As a community leader the Chief of Police will be held to the highest standards and be accountable for actions of all members of the department. A fervent commitment to transparency of Marblehead Police Department operations, as well as open communication with town leadership, the community, and the media is critical.

The Chief of Police is expected to empower all members of the department to maintain the highest ethical standards, handle policing situations in a professional and competent manner and with a commitment to fair, safe and impartial policing. In accordance with the recent adoption of Police Reform legislation in Massachusetts, the Chief of Police should be familiar with the legislation and its requirements and will be expected to prioritize de-escalation and disengagement techniques with officers who are in the line of duty.

The incoming Chief of Police will be immediately responsible for updating the Marblehead Police Department Strategic Plan to lay out the department's specific goals and objectives over the next five years.
